Persian "Holy War" Alleged

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless] LONDON, England, March 10.— Reports from Saloniki say that the belief there, due to the preparations of the French and British armies, is that the Allies are preparing to launch a great Balkan offensive on May 1. The Allies have been assembling large quantities of supplies and facilities for transport.

SLIGHT LULL IN FIGHT ON WEST

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless]
PARIS, France, March 10.— Categorical denials are made by government officials of the German claim yesterday that the village and fortress of Vaux, near Verdun, have been captured by the Germans, or that Corbeaux wood has been cleared of the French.
It is declared that both are in possession of the French. There is no change in the situation at Verdun, except that the fury of the battle has been slightly lessened.
The Germans have halted and are replenishing the ranks of their infantry. At Saloniki, the constant bombardment is continuing on both banks of the Meuse.

BERLIN'S CLAIM TODAY

SAW VILLA GET MEDAL AFTER TORREON FIGHT

Familiar with scenes and life along the Mexican border, which has again been brought to the front in public interest through yesterday's attack by Gen. Villa on the town of Columbus, N. M., Paul Porter, an employee of Lewers & Cooke, Limited, has given to the Star-Bulletin an interview concerning his experiences in the two years and nine months that he spent back and forth between the two countries. He lives at 1036 Green street.

Porter was employed with three different mining companies along the border and finally for the excitement of it joined the Constitutionalists under Gen. Obregon and saw sufficient fighting to satisfy his wants. He is a member of "Company D," National Guard of Hawaii.

"I saw Villa only once," says Porter, recounting his experiences, "and that was in the city of Uihuhua, following the battle of Torreon, in which he had defeated the federal forces under one of General Huerta's men.

DR. PATTERSON NAMED MEDICAL SCHOOL OFFICER

Dr. Lawrence L. Patterson, who returned to Honolulu last December after an absence of about five years, has been appointed medical inspector of the public schools in the city and county of Honolulu.

The appointment was made at a meeting of the board of health yesterday afternoon, and was in keeping with an action of the last legislature wherein $5000 was appropriated for the medical period for the medical inspector and treatment of public school children.

For several months Mr. Patterson has been acquainting himself with his new duties, and will begin active work at once. At one time he did substitution work at the Ewa plantation and then left the islands for the mainland. He will make periodical visits to all the schools in this district.

The board granted a leave of absence of three months to Dr. A. N.
Sinclair, superintendent in charge of the anti-tuberculosis bureau. It is understood that while Dr. Sinclair is in the mainland he will make a further study of tuberculosis work.

MURDER CASE GOES TO JURY IN U. S. COURT

A verdict is expected this afternoon in federal court in the case of Jesse Duke, a civilian employee at Schofield Barracks, who is charged with having murdered G. P. George, an aged money lender and watchman at the post. Both the prosecution and the defense argued the case at length. The jury went to lunch at noon, returning at 1 o'clock to continue its deliberation.
Duke was arrested by the federal authorities and indicted on a charge of having killed George at Schofield Barracks on the night of January 18, this year. George died as the result of a blow on the back of the head from a heavy instrument.

The prosecution rested its case early this morning. This was followed by a motion by the defense for a directed verdict on the ground that the evidence failed to connect Duke with the murder, as charged in the indictment. Judge C. F. Clemons denied

Mexican Outrage is of Concern to Hawaii, Gov. Pinkham Points Out

Governor Pinkham was asked by the Star-Bulletin this morning for an expression of the Mexican developments. He responded: The ordering by the war department of five thousand or more troops into Mexico for action is a most emphatic instance of how a peace-desiring nation, to the very limit of sacrifice and self-respect, can be forced into the first steps of war, the end of which and resulting complications none can foresee.
Now, as in the Spanish war, men following guerilla methods in their unrestrained lawlessness force conditions that compel the United States of America to intervene.
It is up to Hawaii to fully weigh our own situation and realize its facts and significance and be ready of ourselves and for ourselves to act effectually at a moment's notice.

TWO JAPANESE SHIPS SIGHTED OFF 'FRISCO

(Special Cable to Nippu Jiji)
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 10.— Two Japanese warships have been sighted off this port. As yet no one has been able to identify them.

It is almost certain that the two warships seen off San Francisco are the Tokiwa and the Chitose, which were sighted off the island of Maui last month. It is known that the two warships were carrying Russian gold to Victoria, sent by the Russian government to London in this manner.
They arrived at Victoria on February 18 and after unloading the gold and taking on coal and provisions, left that port on March 1, ordered to the South Seas.

Without calling any witnesses or putting Duke on the stand, the defense closed its case, and again requested a directed verdict. This motion also was denied. The case went to the jury at 11:55 o'clock.

ABOUT 20,000 SOLDIERS UNDER GENERAL FUNSTON

All American troops now stationed in the Mexican border states and Oklahoma—with the exception of those in California (one regiment of cavalry) are under the command of Major-Gen. Frederick Funston, and comprise the troops of the line belonging temporarily to the Southern Department.
The troops normally belonging to that department have been increased from time to time since the beginning of the series of Mexican revolutions and disorders in 1910, by the transfer of other organizations to border service.
These troops—that is, those now available along and comparatively near the border—include the following:
Troops: The Cavalry division, 4th Cavalry; one squad; 13th Cavalry; 13th Cavalry (less Troop 1); headquarters and 1st Battalion, 3rd Field Artillery; 4th Field Artillery; 5th Field

SENATOR FALL OF NEW MEXICO PROPOSES RECRUITING 500,000 VOLUNTEERS FOR POLICE DUTY

Resolution in Senate Directs President to Send Armed Force to "Hunt Down Murdering Bands"

RUMOR CARRANZA WILL NOT OPPOSE ACT

[Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless] WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—Maj. Gen. Frederick Funston will command the American army whose expedition into Mexico was decided upon today, following the murderous raid yesterday of Gen.
Villa and his bandit force on the New Mexican town of Columbus.
With two resolutions before Congress calling for stern action by the United States to put an end to the Mexican outrages, army officials are preparing for the despatch of the "punitive force" across the border.
Not less than 5000 American soldiers will be sent, according to Gen.
Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff.
It is emphasized that the action does not constitute intervention.
It is a punitive expedition, the sole purpose of which is to get Gen. "Pancho" Villa, "dead or alive."

Two Resolutions Up in Congress

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—Stirred by the news of the latest Mexican outrage, Congress is preparing to take drastic action.
Senator McCumber of Iowa introduced a resolution to the senate today providing that Congress direct the president immediately to send an armed force into Mexico to "hunt down and destroy" the murdering bands guilty of the atrocities against Americans.
On the heels of this came a resolution by Senator Albert B. Fall of New Mexico. Senator Fall introduced a resolution providing for the recruiting of a volunteer army of half a million men, to be used to "police Mexico."

U. S. Warships May Be Sent South

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—No orders have yet been issued in the navy department in connection with the Mexican situation, but it is considered probable that a part of the Atlantic fleet will be placed in Mexican waters. The occupation of Vera Cruz is pointed to as a precedent of what may occur in naval action to support land forces.
Furthermore, the fleet may be needed to patrol the waters adjacent to coast towns if Americans are endangered by anti-American demonstrations on the part of the Mexicans.
It is learned that the administration is reluctant to make a naval demonstration because of the possibility that it will be construed as an action against Carranza.

According to a message today from Juarez, Carranza makes no objection to the entry of American troops to attack Villa. As a matter of fact, messages have been received stating that Carranza actually has left Guzman with the object of attacking the rear of the Villa forces, and with the expectation that the American soldiers, supposed by Carranza already to have crossed the border, will attack Villa at about the same time.

Hundred Mexicans Known Killed

COLUMBUS, New Mexico, March 10.—It is now established that at least a hundred Mexicans were killed in the raid early yesterday morning on Columbus. The bodies of 75 have been found on the American side. On the body of one of them, Lopez, was found the purse of an American victim, proving that the raiders were looting as well as killing.

Cavalrymen Kill Many of Mexicans

[Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless]
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.— American troops pursuing Villa's band of raiders, caught up with the enemy five miles south of the border and a sharp rearguard action immediately developed.
Late last night the Americans returned, being in insufficient force to effectively cope with the enemy, which includes the main Villista army, numbering between one thousand and fifteen hundred well-armed men.
It is now expected that the Villistas will return for a second raid, the little village of Deming being picked out as the next point of attack. The residents there are preparing to defend themselves. The women and children have been brought together in the school house, which is barricaded with sandbags, while the men are armed and on the alert.
Until late in the night the signals being exchanged between the various Villa detachments could be seen flashing in the sky.
The whole border is alert and all steps are being taken to prevent any further surprises.
Casualties: Light.
In the fighting at Columbus, fifteen Americans, including one woman, were killed. Of these eight were cavalry and seven troops of the 3rd Cavalry. The cavalrymen were wounded. The troops
